

Waldensian Faculty of Theology, Italy

Coptic Studies
Group

The Coptic Studies Group of the Waldensian Faculty of Theology in Rome invites you to join a series of online lectures on "The World of Shenoute: History, Archaeology, and Coptic Literature"

Abbot Shenoute the Great: Rural Patronage, Prophetism, and Iconoclastic Violence in Late Antique Egypt

March 24th 2023

Hour: 3 PM CET, via Zoom

Dr. Michele Scarlassara

Department of Asian and Mediterranean African Studies, Ca' Foscari University of Venice, Italy

Michele Scarlassara is a PhD researcher at the University of Venice. His research area primarily focuses on Hebrew, Coptic, and Syriac textual and material sources, with a special emphasis on the so-called "Lived Ancient Religion", which encompasses materials located at the confluence of the fields of religion and magic Participation is open to the public and free of charge, with pre-registration required. To secure your spot, please complete the registration form. You will then receive a confirmation with the Zoom connection link.

For more information, please contact copticstudies@facoltavaldese.org

The Coptic Studies Group at the Waldensian Faculty of Theology in Rome offers, during the 2022-2023 academic year, a program of bi-weekly Coptic readings and a lecture series, delving into the history, archaeology, and literature of the Coptic world. Our aim is to create opportunities for dialogue and collaboration between specialists and those who have a general interest in the study of Coptic literature.